

NT Lesson 46: “He Will Dwell with Them, and They Shall Be His People” (See L46 Study Guide)

Purpose: To encourage us to face the future with hope because we know that evil will be overcome and the Savior will reign in triumph. (See Revelation 5 – 6 and Revelation 19 – 22. †1. Gerald N. Lund)

1. Satan fights against the righteous.

- Read Revelation 5:1-5 and Revelation 6. “And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book”.
“And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals”. †2. John’s book of Revelation

“One thing we learn from chapter 6, the Lamb (Jesus Christ) opens the first six seals, showing John some of the events associated with each time period... [Another] thing we learn from chapter 6 is that Satan has fought against the righteous throughout the history of the earth.” (Lesson Manual)

- Rev. 6:4-11. “And there went out another horse that was red ... that they should kill one another”.
“6 A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil”.
“8 and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him ... to kill with the sword, and with hunger”.

What tactics does Satan use today to overcome the righteous? †3. President Gordon B. Hinckley

How can we maintain hope and a positive outlook as we fight the war against Satan?

What resources do we have to strengthen us against the power of Satan and his followers?

2. Satan will be bound, and Christ will reign in triumph during the Millennium.

- Read Revelation 19:1-9 and Rev. 20:1-11. “I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia ...”.
“John identified many plagues, wars, and judgments that would occur before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ (Revelation 8 – 16). Then, in Revelation 19, he described the coming of the Lord, symbolized by a marriage supper (Revelation 19:7-9).” (Lesson Manual)

What must we do to be invited to this marriage supper? †4. Elder Bruce R. McConkie

“After the Millennium, Satan will be loosed for a season, and one last great battle will be fought between the armies of God and the armies of Satan. (Revelation 20:7-8; D&C 88:111-113). This is sometimes called the battle of Gog and Magog...” (See Revelation 20:9-11; D&C 88:114-115.)

Since the battle’s result is known, what is our responsibility for this victory? †5. President Ezra Taft Benson

3. After the last judgment, the righteous will dwell with God.

- Read Revelation 20:12-22:21. “And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; ... and the dead were judged”.
“After the last great battle, the final judgment will occur.”

How will we be judged?

What blessings will come to those who are judged to be righteous? (See Revelation 21:3-7.)

- Rev. 21:3-7. “He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.”

List the Lord’s promises:

How can knowledge of these great blessings help us as we face difficulties in mortality?

- Rev. 21:10—22:5 describes the celestial glory of the earth and the celestial city.

Why is there no temple in the celestial city?

“(See Revelation 21:22. The purpose of the temple is to bring us closer to God and teach us of his plan. When we live with him again, temples will no longer be necessary.)” (Lesson Manual)

- Rev. 22:14. “Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they ... may enter in through the gates into the city.”

What must we do to enter the gates of the city? †6. President David O. McKay

NT46 Quotes

†1. Gerald N. Lund: “No book in all scripture has stimulated more discussion, generated more controversy, and created more questions than the book of Revelation. Many modern readers find its imagery and symbolism strange and its message unclear. It isn’t a great surprise, then, that so many often leave the book unread.

“The title of the book in Greek is Apocalypsis, from which we get its other common name, the Apocalypse. Apocalypsis is formed from two Greek words—apo, a preposition denoting separation or removal, and kalypto, a verb meaning to cover, hide, or veil. Apocalypsis, then, literally means removal of the veil or covering. Hence its title in English, the book of Revelation (or the uncovering or unveiling).

“... Elder Bruce R. McConkie, in response to the question ‘Are we expected to understand the book of Revelation?’ answered:

“Certainly. Why else did the Lord reveal it? The common notion that it deals with beasts and plagues and mysterious symbolisms that cannot be understood is just not true. ... If we apply ourselves with full purpose of heart, we can catch the vision of what the ancient Revelator recorded.” (“Understanding the Book of Revelation,” Ensign, September 1975, p. 87.)

†2. John’s book of Revelation: “Chapters 5 and 6 of Revelation use the symbol of a book “sealed with seven seals” (Revelation 5:1). Each seal represents a thousand-year period of the earth’s temporal existence (D&C 77:6-7). In chapter 6, the Lamb (Jesus Christ) opens the first six seals, showing John some of the events associated with each time period.” (Lesson Manual)

†3. President Gordon B. Hinckley: “That war, so bitter, so intense, has gone on, and it has never ceased. It is the war between truth and error, between agency and compulsion, between the followers of Christ and those who have denied Him. His enemies have used every stratagem in that conflict. They’ve indulged in lying and deceit. They’ve employed money and wealth. They’ve tricked the minds of men. They’ve murdered and destroyed and engaged in every other unholy and impure practice to thwart the work of Christ...

“[Opposition] has been felt in the undying efforts of many, both within and without the Church, to destroy faith, to belittle, to demean, to bear false witness, to tempt and allure and induce our people to practices inconsistent with the teachings and standards of this work of God...

“The war goes on. It is waged across the world over the issues of agency and compulsion. It is waged by an army of missionaries over the issues of truth and error. It is waged in our own lives, day in and day out, in our homes, in our work, in our school associations; it is waged over questions of love and respect, of loyalty and fidelity, of obedience and integrity. We are all involved in it” (“The War We Are Winning,” Ensign, Nov. 1986, 42, 44–45).

†4. Elder Bruce R. McConkie: “The elders of Israel are now issuing the invitations to the marriage supper of the Lord; those who believe and obey the gospel thereby accept the invitation and shall sit in due course ... at the marriage feast” (Doctrinal New Testament Commentary, 3 vols. [1966–73], 3:563–64).

†5. President Ezra Taft Benson: “Each day the forces of evil and the forces of good enlist new recruits. Each day we personally make many decisions showing the cause we support. The final outcome is certain—the forces of righteousness will win. But what remains to be seen is where each of us personally, now and in the future, will stand in this battle—and how tall we will stand. Will we be true to our last days and fulfill our foreordained missions?” (“In His Steps,” Ensign, Sept. 1988, 2).

†6. President David O. McKay “told of a vision in which he saw a beautiful city, many people dressed in white, and the Savior:

“The city, I understood, was [the Savior’s]. It was the City Eternal; and the people following him were to abide there in peace and eternal happiness.

“But who were they?

“As if the Savior read my thoughts, he answered by pointing to a semicircle that then appeared above them, and on which were written in gold the words: These are They Who Have Overcome the World—Who Have Truly Been Born Again!” (Cherished Experiences from the Writings of President David O. McKay, comp. Clare Middlemiss [1976], 60).
