

†1. Elder Joseph B. Wirthlin: ““While traveling along a mountainous road one evening through a driving rainstorm punctuated with frequent claps of thunder and flashes of lightning, Sister Wirthlin and I could barely see the road, either in front of us or to the right and the left. I watched the white lines on that road more intently than ever before. Staying within the lines kept us from going onto the shoulder and into the deep canyon on the one side and helped us avoid a head-on collision on the other. To wander over either line could have been very dangerous. Then I thought, ‘Would a right-thinking person deviate to the left or the right of a traffic lane if he knew the result would be fatal? If he valued his mortal life, certainly he would stay between these lines.’”

“That experience traveling on this mountain road is so like life. If we stay within the lines that God has marked, he will protect us, and we can arrive safely at our destination.” (“The Straight and Narrow Way,” Ensign, Nov. 1990, 64).

†2. President Spencer W. Kimball: “There is opportunity to get both [secular and spiritual learning] simultaneously. ... If we spend our mortal days in accumulating secular knowledge to the exclusion of the spiritual then we are in a dead-end street, for this is the time for man to prepare to meet God; this is the time for faith to be built, for baptism to be effected, for the Holy Ghost to be received, for the ordinances to be performed. Contemporary with this program can come the secular knowledge, for even in the spirit world after death our spirits can go on learning.” (The Teachings of Spencer W. Kimball, ed. Edward L. Kimball [1982], 390)

†3. Elder Bruce R. McConkie: “Pure religion is a thing of the Spirit and not of the intellect alone, and its truths must be carried into the hearts of hearers by the power of the Spirit, otherwise the human soul is not changed ... and the seeker after salvation does not become alive in Christ.” (Doctrinal New Testament Commentary, 3 vols. [1966–73], 2:318)

†4. Elder Richard G. Scott: “Any sexual intimacy outside of the bonds of marriage—I mean any intentional contact with the sacred, private parts of another’s body, with or without clothing—is a sin and is forbidden by God. It is also a transgression to intentionally stimulate these emotions within your own body.” (“Making the Right Decisions,” Ensign, Nov. 1994, 38)

†5. Elder Joseph B. Wirthlin: “One of the most pervasive deceptions in recent years is the notion that immorality is normal and acceptable and has no negative consequences. In truth, immorality is the underlying cause of much suffering and many other problems that are prevalent today, including rampant disease, abortion, broken families, families without fathers, and mothers who themselves are children” (“Deep Roots,” Ensign, Nov. 1994, 76)

†6. Elder Boyd K. Packer: “[Satan] knows that this power of creation is not just an incident to the plan, but the key to it. He knows that if he can entice you to use this power prematurely, to use it too soon, or to misuse it in any way, you may well lose your opportunities for eternal progression” (“Why Stay Morally Clean,” Ensign, July 1972, 112).

†7. Elder Richard G. Scott: “Satan tempts one to believe that there are allowable levels of physical contact between consenting individuals who seek the powerful stimulation of emotions they produce, and if kept within bounds, no harm will result. As a witness of Jesus Christ, I testify that is absolutely false. ... Decide what you will and will not do. When temptation comes, do not change your standards” (“Making the Right Choices,” Ensign, Nov. 1994, 38).
